5 May 2023

The children looked wonderful today in their red, white and blue and have taken part in activities to celebrate the Coronation. Thankfully the weather was kind to us and we were all able to enjoy our family picnic together on the field; we had a wonderful afternoon!

We wish you all an enjoyable bank holiday weekend and look forward to seeing the children back in school on Tuesday.

The Class photograph proofs have been sent home and should be ordered online or returned to school by Thursday 11 May.

Coronation Celebration

The collage includes: a circular logo for King Charles III's coronation on 6th May 2023; children in white and blue costumes; children holding acrostic poems; children in colorful costumes; children drawing on pavement; and children in white costumes holding flags.

Class of the Week Year 1

We have been learning all about the coronation. We have created acrostic poems about the new King, made bunting and crowns.

The children have remembered lots of facts about King Charles III.

Rome - "We learned about King Charles III and how he is not a prince anymore."

Amber - "King Charles III is the King now."

Lukas - "The Coronation is at Westminster Abbey."

Cody - "We can watch it on TV. Queen Elizabeth II was the first Coronation on the TV."

Joey - "His crown is called St. Edward."

Year 4 Class Assembly

Year 4 led an assembly to share and celebrate the Coronation of King Charles III by explaining what happens during a special Coronation ceremony. Well done!

Achievements outside of school

If children take part in activities outside of school we would love to hear about their achievements.

Francesca and Noah were joined into Guild of St Stephen's last week at Aylesford Priory. The children serve weekly during mass and they have been given the medal for their commitment to altar serving and mass since making their First Holy Communion. Congratulations, we are very proud of you both.

We also wish Joseph in Year 4 the very best in his skiing championships on Sunday against other Kent Schools.
