Newsletter

09 June 2023

I hope you all had an enjoyable half term break. Please remember to send your child to school with a filled, named water bottle which can be refilled during the day, a sun hat, and if necessary ensure that your child has sunscreen applied before coming to school.

We pray for Isabella, Gloria, Isaac, Niamh, Shantel and Tomisin who will be receiving their Sacrament of First Holy Communion tomorrow. This is a very special event for the children and their families and we keep them in our thoughts and prayers. Congratulations to you all.

NSPCC Childhood Day Mile

Today we celebrated NSPCC Childhood Day Mile with the children taking part in a mile of activities. So far we have raised £55, you may still make your donations through ParentMail.

Class of the Week Year 2

'On Wednesday, we had a beach themed day. We all came in to school dressed in different costumes that are linked to the beach. We sang sea shanties and danced along to them with actions. It was great fun!' - Brooke.

'We learnt about different pirates and made our own. We made a wanted poster for the pirate. Did you know Captain Blackbeard was a pirate for only 2 years before he was put on trial? Another interesting fact is Anne Bonny the famous female pirate ran away from home when she was 16 to become a fearsome pirate!' - Hayley.

'My favourite part of the day was learning about pirates from the past. I liked dressing up too!' - Samson

Aylesford Priory

The children in Year 6 visited Aylesford Priory to take part in the Southwark diocese school liturgy and pilgrimage, One Heart, One Mind.

They also took the Aylesford Priory Mission Quest.

Pyjamarama

Next Friday, 16th June, we're inviting the children to join us for Pyjamarama, a day in pyjamas to raise funds for BookTrust to make sure no child misses out on their bedtime story. The children may wear their pyjamas to school in return for a £1 donation. If you would prefer your child not to wear their pyjamas they may choose a colourful T-shirt instead. Please make your donations through ParentMail.
